Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Calendar of State Papers, Domestic Series: Of the Reigns of Elizabeth, 1591 1594, Preserved in Her Majesty's Public Record Office Among the most remarkable papers in the present volume are the intelligence letters written by or to Thos. Phelippes, the decipherer. This man, known to the historical student as the decipherer of the papers connected with Babington sconspiracy (and, as believed by many, the fabricator of some of those most deeply implicating the Queen of Scots), had received, in reward of sundry similar services, the office of customer in the Port of London. His place afforded him facilities for the reception and transmission of lettersPart of his correspondence he made a merit of communicating to the Grovement, but the more important portion consists of his private papers, seized doubtless when he himself got into trouble in the early part of the reign of James I. These are drafts of letters written by him to persons abroad, or by him for other persons, giving such minute details of the proceedings at Court as it was...
