OCLC Number: 54817587 Excerpt: . . . 4 Congress made great strides in highlighting the importance of postsecondary education. For the first time, many were afforded the opportunity to pursue their dreams of earning a college degree. Countless numbers of students have taken advantage of these programs and as a result our nation has enjoyed the benefits of a more educated society. As we enter the 21st Century, the need for advanced education is becoming increasingly more crucial to successfully maintaining our place in the technologically-advanced economy. Now, more than ever, our citizens are obtaining graduate degrees in order to gain more expertise in their field of study. Currently, nearly 2 million students attend one of over 1, 800 graduate school programs in our country. And, this number is on the rise. According to the Council of Graduate Schools, total graduate enrollment in the United States rose by 3 percent between 2000 and 2001 and is expected to rise in the coming years. Graduate education produces immeasurable benefits for our nation. Not only do these programs enrich our citizenry, but they also nurture discovery and innovation that will someday lead to medical and technological advancements. Graduate programs also train the next generation of researchers, engineers, doctors, lawyers, poets, and professors. These individuals will be vitally important in preparing the United States to meet the challenges of the future. Title VII of the Higher Education Act authorizes three graduate fellowship programs: The Graduate Assistance in Areas of National Need ( GAANN ) program, the Jacob K. Javits Fellowship program, and the Thurgood Marshall Legal Educational Opportunity program. Collectively, they encourage students to advance their knowledge in scientific and technical fields, the arts and humanities, and legal studies...
