There was once a king of Scotland whose name was Robert Bruce. The king of England was at war with him, and had led a great army into Scotland to drive him out of the land. Six times had Bruce led his brave little army against his foes, and six times had his men been beaten. At last his army was scattered, and he was forced to hide himself in the woods. One rainy day, Bruce lay on the ground under a rude shed. He was ready to give up all hope. As he lay thinking, he saw a spider over his head, making ready to weave her web. He watched her as she toiled slowly and with great care. Six times she tried to throw her frail thread from one beam to another, and six times it fell short. Poor thing! said Bruce. You, too, know what it is to fail. But the spider did not lose hope with the sixth failure. With still more care she made ready to try for the seventh time. Would she fail again? No! The thread was...
