Isaiah, 11. 4. The prophet declared, that what is foretold in the text and context, shall come to pass in the last days. The last days signify, without question, the times of the Messiah. The period, which is intended by the last days, began when the Lord Jesus Christ ascended into heaven; and was exalted as the head over all things to the church. Some part of the prediction, which includes our text, was accomplished in the calling of the Gentiles to the knowledge and worship of the true God, and the great success of the gospel in the days of the apostles. But it has been justly observed - There needs no other proof, that the grand accomplishment of this prophecy is reserved for some future period, than the consideration, that nothing, in any measure answerable...
