Armstrong Valley Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 184 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. THREE PERSPECTIVES ON THE WORK AND THE MAN 1. I am deeply honoured to be invited to write an Introduction to this soul stirring Poetry Collection. On the day I met Martin a flame was lit, a flame that burns ever brightly in my heart and in my soul and cannot be extinguished. That catalytic meeting set me on a spiritual journey during which we have shared a myriad of precious and treasured memories, which I can dip into at, will. I feel that this book contains a myriad of poems and other writings, which you can dip into whenever you want to touch your soul with their evocative magic with something special and very different. Listen to their harmonies and their wisdom with your spirit and share some moments in time with the poet. Sometimes youll find your perceptions challenged, sometimes youll feel inspired, sometimes youll be enchanted, sometimes youll be uplifted, sometimes youll feel the wisdom, sometimes youll share a precious moment, sometimes youll feel spiritual, sometimes youll be moved to tears and sometimes youll laugh but youll not remain untouched. My first impression of Martin was of a very old soul full of wisdom the eyes are the mirror of the soul and the warmth and wisdom of his spirit certainly shone through his eyes as it does through his poems. He was then only 24 years old. I was soon to discover that he was a very talented and accomplished Poet whose poetry I would come to love and enjoy even more than that of my old favourites Blake, Shelley and Byron. Martins thought provoking and inspirational poems are from the soul and they rarely fail to touch the spirit...
