Charles H.rones had charge of the singing. The institute was held in the new Baptist church. The Benton county institute was held at Corvallis, November 30, and December 1 and 2. The instructors were R. G. Boone of Los Angeles, Il. M. Schafi er of Ashland, R. F. Robinson of Portland, Mrs. Mamie Fulkerson of Corval is, and several local teachers. The meeting was well attended and it was considered a very successful institute. Superintendent Mack had one of the neatest institute programs of the year. It not only contained the names of the instructors and the program, but a so contained the names of the teachers with their addresses and salaries and the names of the school officers of the county. The other superintendents of the state onght to follow the same plan next year. They would...
