C. 20013) : The Office, 1998. OCLC Number: (OCOLOC)40582938 Excerpt: ... Chapter 1 Introduction civilians, a 48-percent reduction from the 21, 500 in fiscal year 1989. In fiscal year 1998, the depots received revenues of about 1. 4 billion. Since the mid-1980s, depots have generally not been able to hire new government civilian employees because of personnel ceilings and, therefore, have used contractor personnel to supplement their workforce as necessary to meet workload requirements. Like the other services, operations of the Army depots are guided by legislative requirements. Section 2464 of title 10 provides for a Department of Defense ( )-maintained core logistics capability that is to be DOD government-owned and-operated and that is sufficient to ensure the technical competence and resources necessary for an effective and timely response to a mobilization or other national emergency. Section 2466 prohibits the use of more than 50 percent of the funds made available in a fiscal year for depot-level maintenance and repair to contract for the performance of the work by nonfederal personnel. Section 2460...
